COACHING + TRAINING

Inspiring Change | Empowering Success

Astrid Baumgardner, JD, PCC

Yale faculty member Astrid Baumgardner, JD, PCC, loves helping creatives to be successful! Trained as a lawyer and career coach, Ms. Baumgardner teaches creativity and career entrepreneurship and heads the Office of Career Strategies at the Yale School of Music and is president of her coaching company, Astrid Baumgardner Coaching+Training. A leading voice in arts entrepreneurship, she is the author of the book, Creative Success Now. Ms. Baumgardner coaches and guest lectures on creative success at universities and festivals including The Juilliard School, Norfolk Chamber Music Festival, and the Sō Percussion Summer Institute. She also conducts leadership training workshops at OPERA America and Ensemble Connect, the teaching artist academy at Carnegie Hall. As a result of their work together, her students and clients are thriving as professional musicians, arts leaders, academics, and entrepreneurs.

A lifelong amateur pianist and champion of new music, she is a board member and past board chair of the percussion quartet, Sō Percussion, and board member, past chair, and co-chair of the board of the American Composers Orchestra.
